Such members of the Percy family as have been inadvertently omitted in this Record, are requested to report themselves at an early day, to either author or publisher, that they may appear in a future edition. And should errors of any kind be discovered, it is hoped modesty will prevent none from making due mention of them also. Any facts or incidents bearing upon the history of the family—— since Noah—— will be thankfully received and used, if occasion offers, or this work is continued.

to be in the Highlands, promising him 200 guineas if he succeeded. When claimant arrived in the Highlands he found that Clinton had retired to N. Y. The area was then so covered with rebels that claimant was obliged to remain in the woods until Mar., when he finally reached N. Y. after incredible hardships and delivered the despatch; was never paid a farthing for this service. Was twice made prisoner while serving in N. Y.; commanded a Co. at defense of Bergen blockhouse, an action hardly equalled for bravery. Was an Ens. in Col. Jessup's Regt. of Loyal Americans. Came to N. S., where he has tried to improve land granted him by the King, but never having been accustomed to labor, prospects are deplorable. Memorial Mar. 1786 Annapolis, N. S. Claim: Horses, cattle, etc. Evidences: Note by Thomas Barclay 7 Feb. 1786. Willmot that claimant has wife and several children, and is in want. Rejected. (A013/15/90-95).

PENCEL, JOHN, Susquehanna, Tryon Co., N. Y. Left there in 1778 to join Army and served with Col. Butler's Rangers until their reduction. Memorial undated. Claim: Land [ unspecified ], etc. (A013/15/472).

PENN, RICHARD, Governor of Pa., in right of wife and her sister Sarah Masters. Memorial, undated. Claim: Mansion houses and buildings in Northern Liberties of Philadelphia destroyed by Army in 1777 to build defenses. Examination Feb.-Mar. 1789. Claimant says he married Mary Masters who, with her sister Sarah, inherited property in Philadelphia from their father. Sarah Masters is now in England. Claim is partly for inherited and partly for purchased property including: White House; Globe Mill; farm house on German Town road; stone house on Mud Lane; stone house and double stone house on German Town road; brick house near Mill Dam; farm house on Poplar Lane; store on River Delaware; Peel Hall; large mansion house on Whissicking Road; house in Market St. Peel Hall was claimant's place of residence: the properties had been appraised by Robert Towers, painter, plumber, and glazier; Joshua Rakestraw, carpenter and builder; and William Jones, farmer and grazier. William Shepard of Chigwell, Essex, says he lived in Philadelphia in 1777-1778 and knew the property. Solomon Bush, subject of America, says he resided in German Town in 1777 and had a counting house in the city; left the place before Army entered and did not return until 1780. William Austin says that property within a few hundred yards of the lines was destroyed to prevent rebels intercepting country people bringing supplies into the city. Joseph Galloway says he was appointed guardian to Mary and Sarah Masters as executor to their father: the buildings left to them were old. (A013/8/14-40).

14. The expression in the Remarks Column "Gone to the Colonies" could be interpreted as the Maritimes, the West Indies or return to the States; whichever it means is unknown. Some are known to have gone on their lands in Ontario.

PART I

General Return of Refugee Loyalists in the Province of Quebec, exclusive of those Quartered, and residing at the Upper Posts

Folios 143 to 153<sup>v</sup>; names No. 1 to 787

The following is an extract from a letter by John E. Ruch dated 9 August 1984 to Dr. E. Keith Fitzgerald regarding this manuscript, and in particular, concerning entries No. 114 and 115.

"... The dating of the Refugee List, Hald. Pprs. 21,826 ff. 143-170, or at least a good part of it can be seen to be shortly after the first week in Sept. 1783. The clue is on f144<sup>v</sup>. ELIAS SMITH (No. 114) and MOSES SHERWOOD (No. 115) "lately from New York". The remark to me means that they had only just recently come in. Their ship, "Industry", made port at Quebec City early in Sept. It should be possible to date that, and their departure for upstream quarters. CUYLER and DeCOIGNE were compiling returns at the camps during Sept. Larry Turner does not deal with this particular shipload, but concentrates on the groups with P. VAN ALSTINE and M. GRASS in his book Voyage of a Different Kind (Mika Publishing Co., Belleville, Ont.) and gives rolls for them".

COMMENT

This is of course pure speculation in an attempt to date these lists. John Ruch is undoubtedly correct in the arrival of the "Industry" at Quebec City — but how long did these two men dally at Quebec before leaving for Montreal? All this does is confirm that the lists are dated after September 1783 and before May/June 1784.

JOHN E. RUCH is an author of authoritative Loyalist articles (see Canadian Genealogist 5:30, March 1983) and President of a UEL Association Branch. In another letter dated 7 Feb 1984, he comments that ELIAS SMITH "embarked at NYC on 25 Aug 1783".

My dear Mr. Burleigh:

I am sorry to inform you that we have no history devoted to the Irish settlement of New Hampshire. A cursory survey of the general state histories revealed no data on this subject. If you know what town or county they settled in it is possible that a town or county history might contain information.

The following references to the names Costello and Ryan appear in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register. Those for the name Piercy are listed under Percy. There are so many references under this name that it would be impracticable for us to attempt to copy them.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

In reply to your letter of 14 April, I regret to inform you that the Public Archives does not have in its custody any lists of disbanded soldiers of the Seven Years' War, nor is the location of any such lists known to us.

A search of our sources has revealed that a census was conducted three times in the Province of Quebec between the years 1760 and 1790: in 1765, 1784 and 1790. Unfortunately, all of them contain aggregate figures only and give no names.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir,

The only record which we have been able to trace in this connection is the birth and baptism record of James Costello, son of James and Catherine Costello (Ryan), on the 7th August 1779, at Notre Dame de Québec. A legal copy of this act would cost you 56 cents, including postage, both ways, plus 50 cts if a translation into English is desired.

I can only suggest that you apply to Mr E.-Z. Massicotte, chief archivist, Court House, Montréal, if you have not already been in connection with that office.

You may be reasonably certain that no other record of that family exists here in Québec. It is true, however, that the records of the General Hospital of Québec prior to 1783 are missing, but it may as well be assumed that the record searched was not there.

Regretting not to be able to assist you in this matter, I am, dear Sir,

Yours very truly,

H. C. BURLEIGH, M.D., C.M.
BATH, ONTARIO

Mr. Leon Roy
Quebec P.Q.

Dear Sir:-

I am seeking information about James Costello, a soldier who was at the defense of Quebec in 1775. I know that he was present at that time and that he died in Montreal in 1782. He married Katherine Ryan and two or three children were born. Katherine's brother, Michael, was a priest. It is possible that you have record of Father Michael Ryan, the birth of Katherine and her children John James & Katherine, and of the marriage of James Costello and Katherine Ryan. These records would be between 1759 and 1782 and only in the city of Quebec.

Would you please send me copy of such Costello and Ryan records as you find for this period and let me know the cost, which I shall forward to you in return.

Yours sincerely
H. C. Burleigh

John Percy, born in Ireland, 1753, to America before 1777, had short period of service with Rebels in Capt. John Mason's Coy. Col. Hargis's Regiment (N.H. Papers - Gen. Ordono Sept. 8, 1778). joined Fraser's in July 1781, serving at Verdun. Riviere du Lou and the Black House on the Yamaska. was discharged 24 Dec 1783, while at Yamaska. Remained there until April 1784. Arrived at Sorel late in April and left with company for Lachine 29 Apr 1784. He knew James Castello, as they served together in Capt Fraser's Coy in 1781-2 when he killed met Castello's wife, Catherine. Percy was single in Nov 1783 and

PIERCY or PERCY of Ernesttown.

JOHN PIERCY, one of the early settlers to arrive in what is now Ontario. Of his origin and ancestry there is some doubt. It has been variously stated by his grandchildren to have been England, Belfast, Ireland, Wexford county, Ireland, Wicklow county, Ireland and the New England States. Needless to say, however the name Piercy is English and there are still numerous families of that name in England to-day. His grandson, Joseph Lott Percy of Verona states that his grandparents came from county Wicklow, Ireland. This may be partly true as Katherine, the grandmother, was certainly Irish. If John Piercy was not Irish where did he meet his wife? A possible answer may be found in the United Empire Loyalist List where is found the following items--

1. Castiller, Lawrence
2. Costelow, James --- Soldier, Loyal Rangers, died in 1782.
3. Percy, John Ernesttown Soldier, Loyal Rangers---A. McL.
4. Piercy, John a wife and two children. Provisioned at Cataraqui.

In explanation it may be said that John Piercy's wife was Katherine Ryan widow of James Costello. The name Costello is Irish and the pronunciation as given by descendants gives the final o a long sound as in low. It will thus be seen that the two Costello men mentioned above have the same pronunciation of the name. It might be mentioned further that the widow Costello brought with her at marriage to Piercy two or three children among whom was one, James. All this with the fact that there was also a John Piercy in the Loyal Rangers would very easily point to an American origin for this John Piercy. Imagination can very well follow John Piercy from ~~England~~ to America where <sup>Ireland</sup> he becomes embroiled in the Revolution. His recent emigration from the Old Land would make him a staunch Loyalist and so we would find him enlisting in a Loyalist Regiment. So it would be easy to find him a member of the Loyal Rangers with James Costello as a comrade-at-arms. In 1782 James dies and leaves a widow who later becomes the wife of John and with him and her children they emigrate to Canada.

Among the State Papers and records of New Hampshire are the following records--

1. Richard Bourke Piercy, Doctor to 29th Regt. of Foot in the Town of Peterboro. State Papers N. H. Vol. XXX.
2. Michael Ryan married Elizabeth, widow of Joseph Burnham after 1798 History of Durham, N. H.
3. John Piercy, pte, member of Capt. John Heron's Co., Col. Hazen's Regt. (General Orders, Sept. 8, 1778). N. H. State Papers No. 17.
4. Peter Percy Sandown Town, Rockingham Co., Rockingham.
1 male over 16. 1 male under 16. 2 females.
5. Charles Percy Sandown Town, Rockingham County.
1 male over 16. 3 males under 16. 5 females.
6. John Costalow ~~Stratford Town Strafford County~~ Effingham Town Strafford Co. 2 males over 16 0 males under 16 2 females 1 slave.
7. Michael Ryan Durham Town Strafford County.
2 males over 16 3 males under 16 3 females.

4,5,6 & 7 taken from Heads of Families N. H., 1790

These items show the presence of Ryans Piercys Percys and Costalows living near one another in New Hampshire. From such a community may have come the family we are dealing with.

Another aspect of interest is that Katherine Ryan had a brother, Michael, who was a Catholic priest. It came to his ears some years after Katherine's second marriage that she and her husband were bringing the children, both Costello and Piercy, up to be Protestants. Famile tradition has it that he came to Canada on this account and when he accosted them about this breach of faith he was kicked out by his brother-in-law. Michael was then said to have gone to the Irish Catholic Settlement north of Newburg, Ont.

John Piercy with his wife , children and stepchildren arrived at Quebec in 1795 and four hours after their second son, Michael Ryan, was born. After a short sojourn here they travelled on up the St. Lawrence River Valley finally settling in Ernesttown Township of the present County of Lennox & Addington. Family tradition says that their first home was south of Napanee and west of Bath. John and Michael, his two sons received grants of land from the Crown in the second concession of Ernesttown which seems to have been the original home of the family. The following is a copy of the records in the Registry of the County of Lennox & Addington--

1. John Pearcy grant from the Crown May 5, 1823 of lot 3, conc. 2 E $\frac{1}{2}$  of W $\frac{1}{2}$ .
Deed to Sheldon Hawley Oct. 18, 1827.

2. Michael Pearcy grant from the Crown Dec. 25, 1823 lot 3, conc. 2 W $\frac{1}{2}$ .

There is a considerable lapse of time between the arrival of the family and the grants from the Crown. This does not necessarily signify that this land was not occupied because in spite of the fact that land was given to the Loyalists in 1784 and later, there were no deeds given them until 1800 or later. Another point in favor of this lot as the first home of the family is that practically all the children married inhabitants of the neighboring township, Fredericksburg which was less than a mile distant.

Little else is known about John I except that he died in 1811 when his son Michael Ryan Piercy was 16 years of age.

His wife, Katherine Ryan Piercy, widow of James Costello, survived him. She lived on a part of the first property and was accidentally killed in a very tragic manner about 1820. This unfortunate happening is illustrative of the times.

It was the custom of the people of that section of the country to make regular trips to the market at Kingston for the purpose of selling the produce of their gardens. These trips were made over the rough roads of the pioneers and speed was hard to obtain. Such a journey meant spending the night at an Inn near Kingston so as to be at the Market at an early hour. The return trip was made in the afternoon of the market day and it was often midnight before home was reached.

On such a trip Katherine set out accompanied by her grandson, Michael Richardson, a boy of 15 or 16. At the Five Mile House, a popular Inn of that time they stopped to rest and water the horses. At the same time she sent Michael in to enquire if they could obtain lodgings for the night. He returned with an answer in the affirmative but she refused to stay, and hurried on the way toward Kingston. The reason she gave was that she had seen a coffin and candles under the Inn shed. They passed the night at an Inn nearer the Market and the next morning reached the market uneventfully. On the return trip they stopped at the Five Mile House to rest and water the horses as before. Michael removed the bridles, and as the horses were drinking he started to operate the pump. The horses became scared and turned sharply to bolt. This upset the wagon and threw Katherine and the load to the ground. A barrel of salt rolled on her and she died shortly after.

Katherine Ryan, by her marriage with James Costello, had three or four children. Of these the following are known--

1. James Costello who came to Canada with his father-in-law, John Piercy.

He married and had a son Charles

Charles who married a daughter of Joseph Brown who lived in the Brown settlement north of Moscow on the road to Enterprise. This Brown family were Quakers.

He is said to have had four daughters and a son.

1. ----- married Dan Richardson.

2. ----- married a Dryden and later a Vankoughnet.

3. Ann married Thomas Dryden. She was born Feb. 25, 1834 & died Dec. 10, 1879 aged 44 years, 9 months & 15 days. She is buried in Bethany-Racdonald Cemetery in Fredericksburg. The following children are buried with her

1. Martha A died Aug. 9, 1869 aged 21 days.

2. Ida E. died Aug. 9, 1871, aged 9 months.

4. ----- a daughter of whom nothing is known.

5. James.

His property was divided among his four daughters so it is safe to assume that his son, James died during his father's lifetime.

There were a short time ago several Costellos living on Amherst Island. A geography of Frontenac & Lennox & Addington Counties, 1878, shows Luke Costello occupying lot 6, North Shore Concession. There is also the following in a Directory of the County of Hastings by Mackenzie Howell, 1860 --

1. Patrick Costello living on the east side of Pinnacle St., Belleville.

2. John Costello, clerk, with D. C. Curtis of Belleville.

2. Katherine Costello, married Henry Richardson of Fredericksburg, 10 Mar., 1801. She is mentioned as of Ernesttown. Church records of the Rev. John McDowell show this marriage as well as the following births--

1. Anna born or bapt. 5 Jan., 1802.

2. Tamar born or bapt 18 Jan., 1804.

3. Kathreen born or bapt 26 Feb., 1806.

There was present at their marriage William Richardson, James Richardson and Jane Schemerhorn.

(See note under Rebecca Piercy regarding this family).

The children of John Piercy & Katherine Ryan are the following--

1. Rebecca who married James Bradshaw<sup>Richardson</sup> of Fredericksburg 24 Apr., 1804 in the presence of James Castelloe, Lovina Curtis, Samuel Brownson and Alexander McPherson.

The church records of the Rev. John McDowell give this marriage as well as the birth of their eldest child--

1. Katreen born or bapt 27 Feb., 1805.

There is much confusion at present as to the children of Rebecca Piercy and Katherine Costello. Those given above are the only ones which are authentic. There are, however others. One family contains these-- James, Michael and Asa, while the other has Michael, Philip and Jacob. This last family also had Asa. Thus it is seen that each family had an Asa and a Michael. The two Michaels are very different types and were distinguished by their characteristics. One Michael was a wild harum scarum fellow and received the cognomen, "Fighting Mike" while the second being a quieter boy though given to expressing an opinion was called "Opinion Mike". One of these boys married Rachel Atchison (This was Fighting Mike) while "Opinion Mike" married a Miss Brown. "Opinion Mike" was with his grandmother Piercy when she was killed. "Fighting Mike" became embroiled in the Rebellion of 1837 and because of his rebel tendencies was sent to Van Diemens' Land for life. The Asa Richardson, born 1811 or 1812 and died May 17, 1898 and buried in the Bethany-Macdonald Cemetery in without doubt the son of one of these women.

Further knowledge of these families is lacking.

2. ----- a daughter married a Carter.

Her daughter Sarah married William Huff or Hough.

3. ----- married a Forshee.

4. ----- married a Murdoff. son John

She had two boys

1. Daniel.

2. Peter.

These three girls may have as surnames either Costello or Piercy. At present practically nothing is known of them or their descendants.

Mrs. Alice Thompson,

Dear Mrs. Thompson:

On a recent trip to your beautiful State I made a hurried visit to the State Library, seeking information relative to an ancestral line. As I had little time, I was given your name as one who was accustomed and willing to undertake search for such as I. On this assumption, I am requesting that you review the following data and advise me whether there is any advisability of continuing my investigation into my family's past.

1. John Piercy, Pearcy or Percy was my 2nd great grandfather. He came to this region in 1784 as one of its original settlers. I have information that he left either Vermont or N. H. in 1781, and that he had had service in the American Forces during the Revolutionary War. I believe him to be the 'John Piercy, pte., member of Capt. John Heron's Co., Col. Hazen's Regt. (General Orders, Sept. 8, 1778). N. H. State Papers No. 17.'
2. N. H. State Papers, Vol. XXX, also shows 'Richard Bourke Piercy, Doctor to 29th Regt. of Foot in the Town of Peterboro.'
3. The Census of 1790 for N. H. gives the following:
Peter Percy, Sandown Town, Rockingham County.
Charles Percy ditto ditto .

This John Piercy married Catherine (Ryan) Costello at Montreal, Canada, in 1784. Catherine Ryan's first husband, James Costello, was in the defending force at the American attempt to capture Quebec in 1775. His son, James, was born there in 1779. James Costello died in Montreal in 1782, and his widow married John Piercy, as shown above.

By a coincidence I find that the names Costello and Ryan appear in the N. H. Census of 1790, and I am anxious to discover if these three persons, John Piercy, James Costello and Catherine Ryan, can be connected with those families appearing in the Census of 1790. (I might also point out that a Daniel Percy was in Montreal in 1777, as well as John and Richard Costello in the year 1780). Census of 1790 reveals the following:

- 1 John Costalow, Eppingham Town, Strafford County.
- 2 Micheal Ryan, Durham Town, Strafford County.
3. Michael Ryan married Elizabeth, widow of Joseph Burnham after 1798 (Hist. of Durham, N. H.

If there any vital records extant, will you please scan the V. R. of Durham, Eppingham, Sandown and Peterboro for references to these families, and forward me the results of your search. I shall be willing to pay at the usual hourly rates for this type of search. I shall also be very grateful for any information you may be able to discover.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

I shall be glad to see what I can find about your John Percy.

All N.H. vital records in existence were copied and filed here in Concord in 1905-6. While many records had disappeared very many were available. As they are filed by family for the state, checking is a simple matter. I shall check not only Percy but cast a critical eye upon all the possible variants, including the Pierces. Early record keepers could do some wonderful juggling with spelling, as you undoubtedly have discovered. The Ryan and Costello names will not offer so many possibilities of that sort.

Beside vital records there are other sources, of course, such as land records, probates, town histories, etc. Our N.H. Hist. Soc. has many such. All deeds before 1772 are here and there is an excellent genealogical index of those.

If you can send me names of any of John Percy's brothers or sisters or of his children those may help. I will first check the V.R. and then report.

Sincerely yours,

Alice S. Thompson

My dear Dr. Burleigh:

If you believe that John Piercy was a land owner in "Little" York in 1781, we suggest you write Mr. Henry Young, York County Historical Society, York, for any information he may be able to procure. Mr. Young is a reliable researcher and would examine the church records and court records in that vicinity. Any proof you may have relative to John Piercy being in York County, we suggest you report to Mr. Young.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of December 14, which I find very interesting. You are probably right in thinking that John Piercy was in this county for only a short time, for there seems to be nothing whatever reported about him here. Notably, there are no deeds recorded in the name of Piercy between 1749 (the date of establishment of this county) and 1912. I have not searched later indexes.

I am especially interested because I have been collecting data on the York County loyalists for several years, and never came upon this man's name. I would like to add the data that you have on his claim to my files: what is the source of your information as to his claim? I find no mention of him in the index to the reports of the Ontario Bureau of Archives, and in looking over the Pennsylvania volumes of the American Loyalist Papers in the New York Public Library (which are transcripts from the Public Record Office in London) last winter I found no mention of his claim, at least made no note of it. However, my time was limited and the material was so extensive that I might easily have missed it.

I will be very grateful indeed for any further information that you may obtain concerning this man. Needless to say, if any data come to light here they will certainly be sent you. Perhaps I should mention that the fact that there are no deeds recorded in the name of John Piercy in York County is not conclusive proof that he did not own land here, for the laws of Pennsylvania do not absolutely require the recording of deeds, and prior to 1890 a goodly proportion were not recorded.

I note that you are president of the Bath Historical Society, and I am sending you under separate cover some of our publications for the Society's files.

Very truly yours,

Dear Cousin
you will no doubt have concluded before now that promptness is not one of my strong points. I could of course give some excuses, for my delay, but what's the use? I do not know that I can give much valuable information on the subject but will willingly help all I can. As near as I can get to the facts, from conversations with members of our family are that Grandfather Perey was born in 1795.
enlisted as soldier at Kingston in 1812 at age of 17 (1812 - 17 = 1795)
He died at our home in Deseronto
63

Below you will find details of my mother & her children, as per your request.

Two of my brothers died a number of years ago. I can get the dates if you wish for for them. Now if there is anything more information I can give please let me know & I will not delay so long in writing next time.

in December 1885. (We moved to Toronto the following spring 1886) aged 70. 1885 - 1795 = 70.

Grandmother Percy died at the old home near Bellrock in year 1878 month of Sept. about two weeks later Aunt Frances Percy was brought to our home near Marlbank, quite sick at the time and died the following Dec (1878) (We moved to Levens-into the following spring 1879).

My mother informs me that her father raised a family of 16 children, 2 of whom were his sisters children.

His father's family never lived in U.S.A. so that when they landed at Quebec, they must have arrived from Ireland.
